

TIM MANU

Tim Manu brings not only a youth perspective to the council table, but also the experience and community outlook of being a young father of two children aged 2 and 1.

Mr Manu has been involved in Youth Affairs since 1999. During this time Mr Manu became a founding and longest serving member of the Porirua Youth Council. He has been a Youth Advisor to the Youth Development Strategy Aotearoa when it was passed by Cabinet in 2001.

Later on Mr Manu became involved in Student Politics at Massey University, Wellington on the Students Association.

He is also a list member of the NZ First Party, and stood as a Candidate in the 2005 General Elections. He is Chairman of the Mana Electorate Committee.

On Council, Mr Manu is Deputy Chair of the Special Consultative Procedure Hearings Subcommittee and a member of the Sisters Cities Committee.
